ANDREW KAZANTSEV® METAL ARTIST

The world of steel and iron has always been incredibly attractive to Andrew Kazantsev.

In 2018, he created his first metal sculpture — a cat. The exciting process of turning a flat cold sheet into a three-dimensional "animated" animal with a special character was the beginning of the artist's birth.

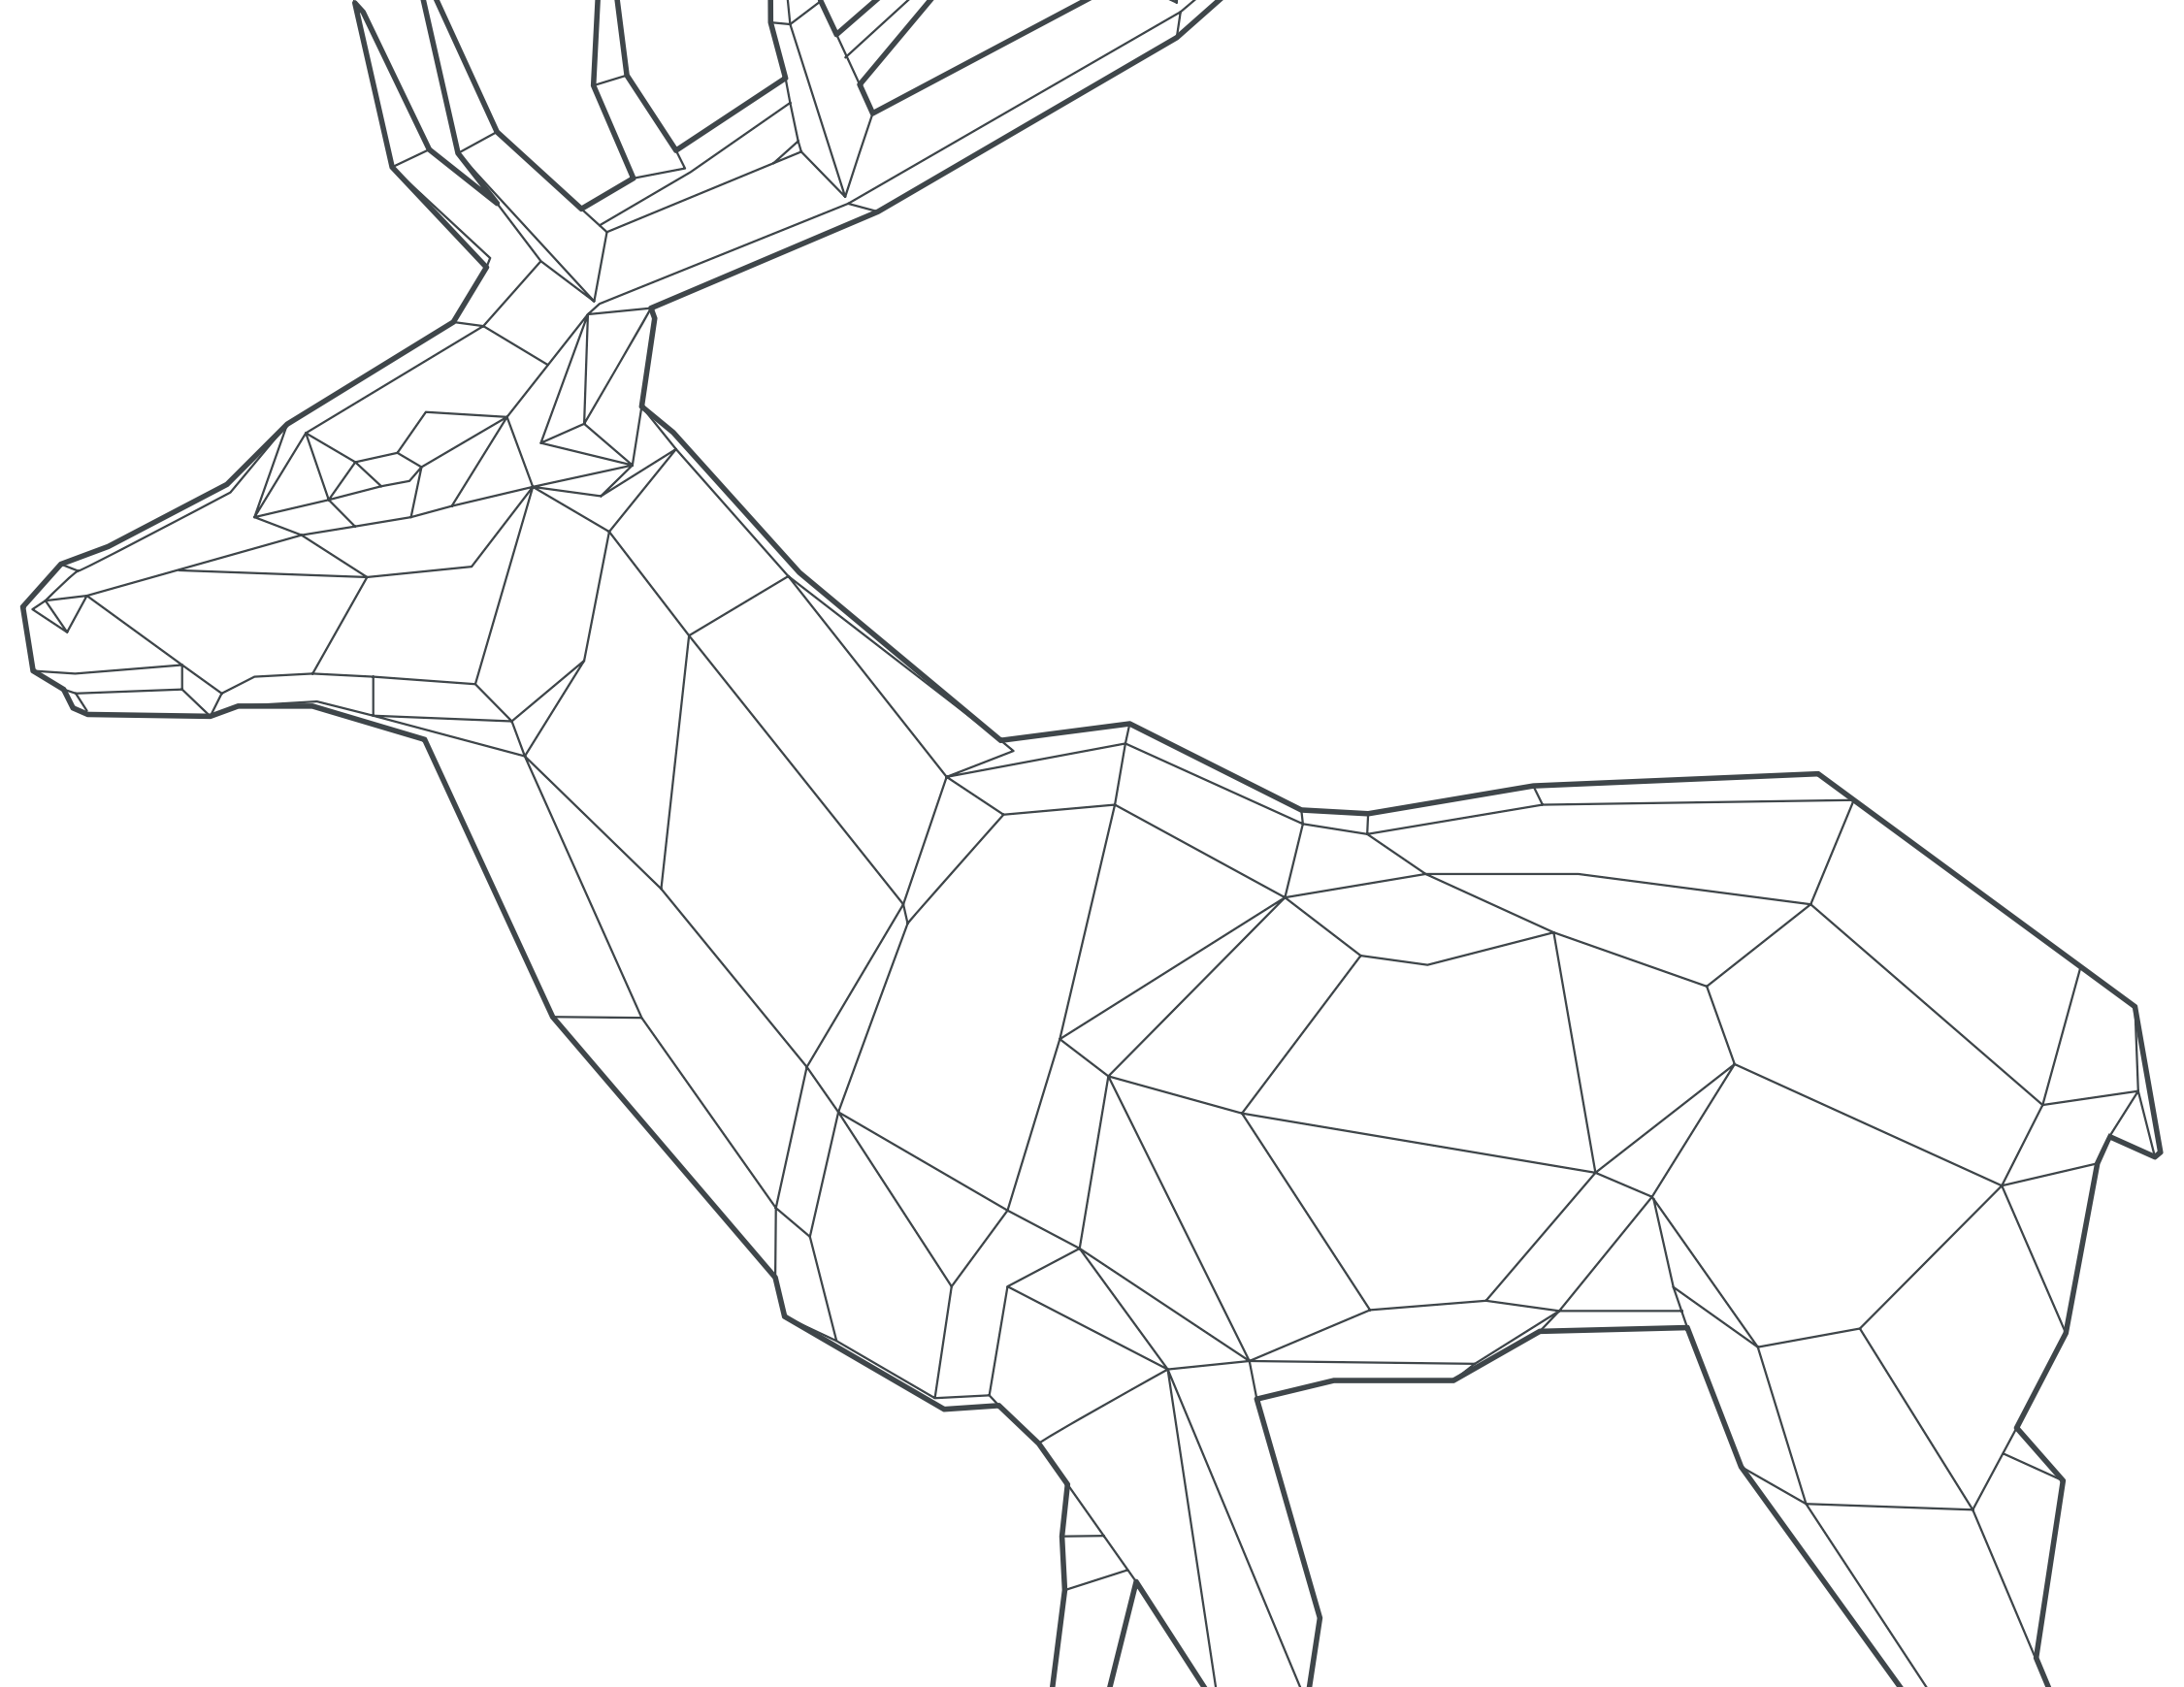

Strict geometry, impeccable architecture of flat faces, minimalism, conciseness combined with elegance have become the artist's hallmark.

The mystery of the Russian soul is transmitted to his creations. The mystique and mystery of polished edges, rough grinding, burnt surface and rust, monochrome and bright colors create a unique microcosm.

New collections of "soulful" animals make Andrew Kazantsev a true master of modern art.
